

I fully support the proposal RM-10811 submitted by the FISTS organisation regarding keeping CW testing and strengthening speed and other technical requirements for access to HF bands especially for advanced privileges. I am not a member of FISTS but believe their proposal is in the best long-term interest on the amateur radio service and will ensure the most effective use of HF spectrum while minimizing FCC enforcement situations.

Sincerely,
James Knight, W2JLK